National Center for Policy Analysis and Salem Radio Network deliver FreeOurHealthcareNow.com petition; largest policy petition ever presented to Congress

WHO: Members of Congress, including:

Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchison (R-TX)	Rep. John Shadegg (R-AZ)
Sen. Jim DeMint (R-SC)	Rep. Steve King (R-IA)
House Min. Leader John Boehner (R-OH)	Rep. Phil Gingrey (R-GA)
House Min. Whip Eric Cantor (R-VA)	(partial list)
House Rep. Conf. Chair Mike Pence (R-IN)

Nationally Syndicated Salem Radio Hosts, including:

Mike Gallagher	Janet Parshall
Hugh Hewitt	Dennis Prager
Michael Medved

National Center for Policy Analysis representatives, including:

Former Governor Pete du Pont, Chairman, NCPA
Dr. John Goodman, President and CEO, NCPA

WHAT: Leaders in the House and Senate will be presented with a petition by NCPA leadership and nationally-syndicated Salem Radio Network (SRN) hosts. The effort has garnered well over one million authentic signatures of Americans concerned about the imminent threat of government run healthcare proposals.

The online petition, available at www.freeourhealthcarenow.com, was launched on May 25 by NCPA and SRN and its nationally-syndicated talk host team. The NCPA, a leader in public policy research for over 25 years, provided the content and analysis on almost all facets of the debate, including educational guidance on the framing and substance of the petition itself.

WHERE: Upper Senate Park, adjacent to Russell Senate Office Building just across Delaware Street NE, Washington D.C.

WHEN: Wednesday, September 9, 2009

2:00 PM	–	Program and Remarks
2:45 PM	–	Informal one-on-one interviews
